

FULL CIRCLE FOR INDIGENOUS EDUCATION

2019 FULL CIRCLE EDUCATION AWARD RECIPIENTS

Our Young Leaders – Bursary ($500)

High School graduate or mature student that aspires to be an educator and demonstrates a commitment to the continuation of Indigenous education initiatives. Must be registered at a recognized University, College or Training Program.

2019 Recipients: Sentilla Bubb and Andrea Leach

Leadership Sustaining Our Ways – Scholarship ($1000)

Individual entered in a Masters or Ph.D. program and has proven their commitment to increase the success of Indigenous students. Must possess a post-secondary diploma that has been applied to an educational setting.

2019 Recipient: Joel Boyce

Honouring Our Allies

Individual who is non- Indigenous but demonstrates a commitment in promoting Indigenous education initiatives.

2019 Recipients: Lawrence Barkwell, Henrietta Hoch, and Dr. Mary LeMaître

Researcher and/or Curriculum Development

Individual involved in an aspect of Indigenous research or the development and implementation of Indigenous perspectives in all curriculums.

2019 Recipients: Dr. Cindy Peltier and Greg Pruden

Indigenous Language Education

Individual who is dedicated to and involved in the process of conservation of languages through various initiatives.

2019 Recipients: Patsy Millar and Daisy Monias

FULL CIRCLE FOR INDIGENOUS EDUCATION

2019 FULL CIRCLE EDUCATION AWARD RECIPIENTS

Spirituality/Culture Education

Individual who is dedicated to and involved in the process of conservation of Indigenous cultures and traditions.

2019 Recipient: Melissa Brown

Trailblazer/Role Model

Individual who is committed to Indigenous education in varying capacities.

2019 Recipients: Laura Forsythe and Mona Moquin

Honouring Our Grandmothers and Grandfathers

An Indigenous Grandmother or Grandfather who serves the people through traditional knowledge and teachings. Must be 55 years of age or older.

2019 Recipients: Gramma (Geraldine) Shingoose and Dan Thomas

Organizational Leadership

Indigenous organization that is committed to strengthening Indigenous education through holistic and inclusive programming and support.

2019 Recipient: Urban Circle